

FORTHEM Collective Short-Term Mobility

The 2024 European Elections and the Future of Europe

Organising university: Universitat de València

Location of the event: València, Facultat de Dret (Campus Tarongers)

Organisers: The initiative will involve scholars from different Forthem partners such as the Universities of Valencia, Johannes Gutenberg-Mainz, Università degli Studi di Palermo and Université de Bourgogne. It will also involve local and regional institutions as well as Civil Society Organisations.

Project description: The STM will facilitate in-person mobility for a diverse group of excellent students from the different Forthem universities. The program will promote a multi-disciplinary knowledge of European Union and will contribute to understand the relevance of the 2024 European Parliament elections for the current and future challenges of Europe. It will also facilitate awareness of the Forthem alliance and promote the engagement of the students in its future activities.
